

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2023

8 AM - 12 NOON

407 Auburn Avenue, NE,
Atlanta, GA 30312

*Volunteers are needed for the service activity. Must pre-register.
Email coordinator@dhiafoundation.org*

To celebrate the extraordinary connection between Martin Luther King, Jr and Mahatma Gandhi, volunteer now and join us:

8:00 a.m.-9:30 a.m.: Delivering supplies and food to the unhoused. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes. This service activity requires volunteers

10 a.m.-11 a.m.: Historic Ebenezer Church Sunday Service.

11:15 a.m.-11:30 a.m.: Pay respects at the Mahatma Gandhi statue, The Gandhi Foundation of USA, Atlanta. All are welcome.

11:30 a.m.-12 noon: Visit to Freedom Hall at the King Center (this has rooms honoring Martin Luther King, Jr & Coretta Scott King, Rosa Parks and Mahatma Gandhi). Only still photos allowed. All are welcome.

- Note: Venues are a short walk apart.

More Info :

<https://www.dhiafoundation.org/we-are-one>

Parking options:

- Park in the parking lot that says "King Center Parking" (you will see a white and turquoise Cinnabon truck at the beginning of the driveway)
- Park on Jackson Street if the parking lot is full.

