

Ebenezer Baptist Church and Restoring One's Hope of Atlanta, Inc present

The Community Fair for Homeless

To celebrate the extraordinary connection between Martin Luther King, Jr and Mahatma Gandhi, volunteer now and join us for the Community Fair at:

THE HISTORIC EBENEZER BAPTIST CHURCH, ATLANTA

407 Auburn Avenue, NE,
Atlanta, GA 30312

OCTOBER 7, 2023
8AM - 3PM

Volunteer Opportunities Available

More Info :

<https://www.dhiafoundation.org/we-are-one>

Contact Details :

Email: coordinator@dhiafoundation.org

Here are the breakdowns of different shifts and areas you can serve in :

Saturday, October 7th

a. Set up: 8:00am-10:00am

- Set up tents, tables, and chairs
- Pass out flyers
- Move clothes outside

b. Monitor various stations: 10:00am-1:00pm

- Barber Station
- Food Station
- Shower Station
- Resource Station
- Clothes Station

c. Breakdown: 1:00pm-2:30pm

- Breakdown tents, tables, and chairs
- Move clothes inside
- Clean up and take out the trash

Parking options:

- Park in the parking lot that says “King Center Parking” (you will see a white and turquoise Cinnabon truck at the beginning of the driveway)
- Park on Jackson Street if the parking lot is full.

If you would like to donate clothes, please feel free to bring any clothes, shoes, blankets, comforters, socks, gloves, hats, and towels/washcloths with you.

